BREED THEATRE

Two Big Features For Today and Saturday-Peggy Hyland in Persugaive Peggy and Ella Hall in A

A bill composed of two big features will be shown at the Breed theatre oday and Saturday and is headed by beautiful Peggy Hyland in the six act film masterpiece, Persuasive Peg-gy. This picture is adapted from the story by Maravene Thompson and shows how a young wife wins out in humanizing her selfish and stubborn young husband by her adroit arts of persuasion. The story is an interest-ing one and is presented on the screen by a capable cast!

The second feature of this bill is A Mother's Secret, a five-part Blue-hird production starring Ella Hall.

This picture is a regular lecture to women on the way to keep youthful and the advice is built around the character of a woman who visualizes the part of the mother of Ella Hall, the star of the production.

The Broadway Revue Has Another Winner.

Testerday afternoon and evening at the Auditorium the Broadway Musical Revue company produced another Revue company produced another winner entitled Over the Top, which is brimful of good wholesome comedy and was well received by good sized audiences at both performances. It is the best offering yet produced by this organization and gives the "funny fellows"—Jennings and Rogers—more opportunity to show their abilities as clever entertainers. The musical selections were of the best and each number prettily costumed.

Marion Webb rendered several new songs, showing her well trained voice

A SONG FOR THE FLAG

MINISTER STANDS

By DENIS A. McCARTHY

Here is my love to you, flag of the free, and flag of the tried and true. Here is my love to your streaming stripes and your stars

Here is my love to your silken folds wherever they wave on high. For you are the flag of a land for which 'twere sweet for a man to die! Green though the banners my fathers bore in the days of their ancient

Men of my race, full many, have died for the banner of Stripes and Stars, Bearing the green my fathers battled and bled in the olden fray, But you, O beautiful flag of the free, are the flag of our hearts today!

So, with the myriad races of men who, leaving the past behind, Give to the land of their manhood's choice allegiance of heart and mind Laboring ever with hand or brain, the nation they help to build, For you, O beautiful flag, are to them the sign of a hope fulfilled! Native or foreign are all as one when cometh the day of strife.

What is the dearest gift we can give for the flag but, a human life? Native or foreign are all the same when the heart's blood reddens the And native or foreign 'tis love like this is the ultimate test of our worth!

Native or immigrant-here is the task to which we must sum Selfishness, narrowness, graft and greed and the evil that hates the light. All these are foes of the flag today, all these we must face and fight.

Ever your golden stars may shine from the east to the western sea! Ever your golden stars may shine and ever your stripes may gleam To lead us on from the deeds we do to the greater deeds that we dream!

Here is love to you, flag of the free, and flag of the tried and true. Here is our love to your streaming stripes and your stars in a field of Native or foreign, we're children of all the land over which you fly,

And native or foreign we love the land for which it were sweet to die!

THE SERVICE FLAG

Hung with a tear and a woman's prayer: Child of Old Glory, born with a star-Oh, what a wonderful flag you are,

Blue is your star in its field of white. Dipped in the red that was born of fight; Born of the blood that our forbears shed To raise your mother, The Flag, o'erhead. And now you've come, in this frenzied day,

Gone to be gone till the victory's won. The flag of his mother-I speak for her Who stands by my window and waitt and fears But hides from the others her unwent tears.

To speak from a window-to speak and say:

"I am the voice of a soldier son

I am the flag of a mother's son

"I am the flag of the wives who wait For the safe return of a martial mate. A mate gone forth where the war god thrives To save from sacrifice other men's wives. "I am the flag of the sweethearts true;

The often unthought of-the sisters, too." And I won't come down till the victory's won." -Selected
